VOL. VIII. NO. 77 — FRESNO, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 1894 — PRICE—5 CENTS

THE TYNAN ESTATE

His Stepdaughters Will Renew Their Suit.

THE BICYCLE RECORD LOWERED

San Francisco Republicans, Democrats and Non-partisans Make Nominations.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The reappearance of Dr. Thomas C. Tynan, who mysteriously disappeared two years ago and was absent until three days ago, will be the signal for an interesting suit in Stanislaus county where his estate, valued at $200,000, was distributed among his heirs, the superior court declaring him legally dead. His presence on the scene will make void all proceedings against his executor, wherein a jury found that the doctor took charge of his first wife's separate property in 1862, and used it not as his own but as agent and trustee for his first wife and her two daughters by a former husband. The stepdaughters sued Tynan's executor for the total value of the estate, and appealed to the supreme court from a decision giving a share to his second wife. As soon as the doctor is legally declared alive the stepdaughters will renew their suit and the entire contest will be fought over again.

More Nominations Made.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The Non-Partisan convention tonight nominated Antone Roman for recorder and James McNabb for sheriff. Roman is a real estate dealer and McNabb a drayman.

The Republican convention nominated the following: For superior judges, Davis Lauderback, George H. Bahrs, F. H. Merzbach and E. A. Belcher; Samuel Huskins, for the assembly, Thirty-ninth district; Thomas Clark, Thirty-eighth district, and the independent Republicans or anti-Burns men nominated J. J. Calish from the Fortieth district.

The Democrats nominated the following for justices of the peace: Alfred J. Fritz, Kenneth Williams, C. Wesley Reed, John A. Carroll and Kennedy.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

A Young Husband Shoots His Wife in the Leg.

OAKLAND, September 28.—Fred Gaetter accidentally shot his wife in the left leg just above the knee while starting on a hunting trip from Napa. Amputation was necessary and the accident almost resulted fatally. The couple have been married but a few months. The accident occurred while they were absent on a holiday trip. The shotgun was discharged while Gaetter was examining it, its contents lodging in his wife's leg at short range. The nearest physician was twenty miles distance, and the only way to reach him was by driving. Six hours elapsed before medical assistance was procured, and although the husband bound cords about the limb, the woman was almost dead from loss of blood and exhaustion when the doctor arrived. She is recovering.

Cabrillo Celebration.

SAN DIEGO, September 23.—The Cabrillo celebration was a magnificent spectacle. Cabrillo and his crew landed from the Caravel this morning, having been at anchor all night. A brilliant parade followed, witnessed by 20,000 people. Mayor Carlson presented Cabrillo with the key to the city. A band of Indians formed part of the parade. Literary exercises followed, then an open air concert. A carnival tonight was the culmination. It was ushered in by a band of masked revellers.

College to be Rebuilt.

OAKLAND, September 28.—Brother Eminold, acting president of St Mary's college, at the request of Archbishop Riordan, has called a meeting of the alumni officers and supporters of the college for Sunday afternoon to consider plans for rebuilding the college. The destruction wrought by the fire is greater than was at first supposed, and the insurance is only about one-eighth of the loss. A vacation has been declared until October 15th.

Indictments Against Strikers.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The United States grand jury today returned forty indictments against Sacramento, Red Bluff, Dunsmuir and Oakland strikers. The charges were in every case that defendants entered into a conspiracy to obstruct the United States mails and to interfere with interstate commerce. As arrests have not been made, the indictments were placed on the secret file.

Pioneer Journalist Dead.

STOCKTON, September 28.—A. C. Rutsell, a pioneer journalist, died tonight from the effect of an accident while at the office of the Merced Express Tuesday. He fell down the stairs and broke his breast bone, but did not discover it for several days. He was 71 years old. In 1854 he was editorial writer on the defunct Alta-California.

Convicted of Manslaughter.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., September 28.—George Carniff, charged with manslaughter in having caused the death of Wan Sing, a Chinaman, at Petaluma, March 31st, by pushing him into a creek, was today tried in the superior court and found guilty as charged. The prisoner was remanded to jail pending sentence.

Estee at Woodland.

WOODLAND, September 28.—M. M. Estee and Lee Fairchild spoke here tonight. A large audience assembled from all parts of the county. Estee was enthusiastically received. He also addressed the Republican county convention.

Mormons Returning to Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—A party of Mormons, sixteen in number, have arrived here from Utah on their way to Honolulu. They say they have no fault to find with Mormonism, but that the climate of Utah was not adapted to them. Quite a number died.

Ellert for Mayor.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The Republican municipal convention tonight nominated L. R. Ellert for mayor by acclamation. Ellert has already been nominated by the Non-partisans, by whom he was elected mayor last year.

HORTICULTURALISTS MEET.

Grading and Packing of Dried Fruit Discussed.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The California Horticultural Society met here today. The subject discussed was "Grading and Packing Dried Fruits." Some of the speakers advocated cheaper sacks for shipping fruit and others said sacks should be superseded by boxes. President Walton favored the establishment of warehouses at fruit shipping centers where dried fruits may be properly prepared for shipment; that dried fruits be prepared and graded by experienced persons; that all fruits should be graded according to uniform standard and that fruit should be cleared of all foreign substances to prevent deterioration.

San Jose Races.

SAN JOSE, September 28.—There were 6,000 people at Agricultural park this afternoon when Otto Ziegler jr., and Wood, the trotter, appeared on the track and made a start in their mile race. THE CHINESE WAR.

JAPAN'S ARMY RAPIDLY ADVANCING NORTHWARD.

Li Hung Chang Has Taken the Field in Person—Chinese Desert.

YOKOHOMA, September 28.—The Japanese army in Corea is rapidly advancing northward. No resistance to its progress is expected this side of the Chinese frontier.

SHANGHAI, September 28.—Li Hung Chang has taken the field in person and will direct the campaign. Chinese troops have evacuated Corea and are now massed thirty miles west of the Yalu river at Chin Lies Chang. There has been numerous desertions from the Chinese army because of the faulty condition of the arms and ammunition supplied to the troops.

Another junk sailing through the north Channel to evade the guard boats struck a torpedo and was blown to pieces. Several men were drowned.

He Was the Man.

SACRAMENTO, September 28. — John Murdock, who looked as if he had been in conflict with a threshing machine, applied at the police station tonight for lodging. After he was locked up a telephone message came from Stockton that John Murdock was wanted there for the alleged embezzlement of $150. Murdock admitted he was the man but said the charge was unfounded.

Budd at San Bernardino.

SAN BERNARDINO, September 28.—James H. Budd addressed a large meeting tonight in the pavilion. His speech was devoted to state issues, and he placed himself on a platform of economy in state affairs. His remarks were well received. A reception followed, attended by a large number of enthusiastic Democrats.

BAKERSFIELD, September 28.—M. E. Marvin, supposed to be a resident of Oakland, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a pen knife. He left a note stating that he was tired of life. He had been working for J. D. McDonald, a contractor on the Turlock ditch.

The Wheelmen's Ball.

The turnout to the Wheelmen's ball at the Armory hall last night was not as large as expected. But those who did attend were well repaid for their trouble, for they spent a most delightful evening. The floor was in fine condition and the music was excellent.

The program consisted of nineteen numbers and three extras, and it was not until a late hour that the party broke up. The committees in charge were: Reception—Robert Barton and J. N. Bostick. Floor committee—William Toomey, Mark Hutchison and Thomas Anton.

The following San Franciscans are stopping at the Hughes: F. H. McCormick, W. J. Shotwell, J. M. Holmes, J. F. Stanford, L. N. Tryon, H. L. Rothschild and F. H. Gardiner.

THE PRIZE FIGHTERS

Fitzsimmons and Corbett Talking.

DAN CREEDON HAS HIS SAY

Fitz Says He Will Yet Put His Fist in Corbett's Face.

PORTLAND, Me., September 28.—Corbett mailed a letter to Fitzsimmons tonight in which he ridicules Fitzsimmons' challenge, but agrees to fight him if Fitzsimmons defeats Steve O'Donnel, Corbett's sparring partner.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 28.—Fitzsimmons says as Corbett does not want to fight him he will claim the heavy weight championship of the world. He says he will put his fist in Corbett's face yet.

ST. LOUIS, September 28 —Dan Creedon, the vanquished middle weight, says Fitzsimmons did not fight fairly, striking him with his wrist on the head, producing a stunning effect not attained by a fist blow. Creedon says it felt like a blow from a club.

The Baptist Young People.

The Baptist Young People's Union gave their monthly social at De Witt hall last night. The program rendered was very good and several encores were responded to. After the program was rendered refreshments were served, and a good time generally concluded the evening's entertainment. From the interest shown and the growing membership, it is apparent that it will soon be one of the largest young people's societies in this city. There will be special services at their hall next Sunday evening, to which all are invited.

A Reunion Social.

One of the most successful socials ever given in the Congregational church of this city was that of last night. The attendance was unusually large and the program, which was of a musical character, was especially good. Games, refreshments, chatting and college songs engaged the attention of the young people until 10.30 p.m., when the social came to an end. Everybody declared that it was one of the pleasantest evenings spent in a long time.

Swift Justice.

George Daly has no cause to complain of the law's delay or the slowness and uncertainty of justice. Thursday night he made a descent upon A. G. Leverone's hen roost, and was about to make a pull when Mr. Leverone came in upon him. There was no chance to escape, so he surrendered, and Mr. Leverone took him to jail. Yesterday he pleaded guilty in Recorder Clark's court, and was sent to jail for sixty days.

Republicans at Raymond.

Tonight the Republicans of Madera county open their campaign at Raymond, and a great demonstration is expected. A brass band will go up from Madera, and a delegation of forty or fifty persons. The speakers will be Mr. Fee, candidate for district attorney of Madera county; M. V. Ashbrook, candidate for the assembly sixty-third district, and Dr. A. J. Pedlar, candidate for the senate.

Meeting at Malaga.

The Republicans held their meeting at Malaga last night, and while the attendance might have been larger without bulging out the walls of the building, yet it was large enough to show that the party of progress has a firm foundation there. Dr. A. J. Pedlar and George W. Jones were the speakers of the evening. Nearly all the candidates of the party were present.

Ancient Salads.

The lettuce was deemed by the ancients the food of the dead, because when Adonis, the beloved of Venus, was mortally wounded by a wild boar the weeping goddess laid him upon a bed of soft and tender lettuces, whose milky juice possesses soothing and narcotic qualities. Lettuces were eaten by the ancients at the close of their repasts, as from their cooling qualities they were considered antidotes to the heating effects of wine.

The bitter herbs which the Jews ate at the passover were wild lettuce, succory, fancy, camomile and dent-de-lion, and this same race are the inventors of the salad compounded of oil, vinegar, sugar, salt and mustard to render the bitter herbs palatable. The Irish; two centuries ago made their salads of sorrel, wood sorrel and beet chopped with vinegar, beer and a little sugar, but no oil, salt or mustard. Readers of classic history will remember how a lettuce caused the cruel death of Cambyses, king of Persia and Media, and of his consort, who was also his sister.—Vegetarian.

Another French Enterprise.

Undismayed by their experience in the Suez and Panama enterprises, the French are undertaking to build another great canal. They have now determined to connect the bay of Biscay with the Mediterranean by a canal over 400 miles long, from 144 to 215 feet wide and from 28 to 34 feet deep and with widened passing places every eight miles. There will be 22 locks, each 660 feet in length and 80 feet in width. The cost is calculated at $100,000,000. It is, however, safe to say that it will be much more. It is claimed by its promoters that besides greatly expediting commerce this waterway will be of vast political significance. If it could only be kept open in war, Gibraltar, the strongest fort in the world, would be rendered useless, and France instead of England would hold the "key to the Mediterranean."—London Globe.

JIM BUDD'S BOYS.

They Want Everything in and Out of Sight.

The Jim Budd club met in Kutner hall last night and had a lively time arranging details for the visits of James G. Maguire and the Buckboard hero. No great amount of enthusiasm was exhibited about Maguire, but as regards Jim Budd there was a manifest disposition among certain members to "take everything in sight."

President Goucher called the meeting to order and made a brief address, after which the report of the conference held during the day (reported elsewhere) was read by H. H. Hotaling. Among the recommendations was one that the chairman of the Jim Budd club appoint a reception committee of three, as would be done in the case of the other clubs for the visits of Maguire and Budd.

This brought G. L. Hood to his feet with a jump, and he immediately jumped on the proposition with both feet. He said that the president of the Budd club had already appointed a committee of twenty-seven for the express purpose of receiving Jim Budd. Many of them were schoolmates of Jim and if any of the twenty-seven were left out there would be disappointment on their part.

W. D. Grady was disposed to be sarcastic at Hood's expense and drew a fancy picture of that gentleman in a plug hat and pigeon tail coat, blooming in the procession, and of the bottle or two of champagne which members of the reception committee are supposed to enjoy in executive session with visiting candidates of high degree. He deprecated the idea of a reception committee of twenty-seven, pointing out that the other club might increase its representation and the central committee go them one better, so that Mr. Budd might find a reception committee of 100 awaiting him and not know with whom he had to shake hands.

After a half hour's talk Goucher left the chair and made a short appeal, on which Hood withdrew his opposition to the report of the conference committee, and it passed.

The final arrangements for the reception of Maguire were left to the committees which will meet today, and the club adjourned. About thirty new members signed the rolls. A delegation from the Fifth ward came over from Chinatown to enthuse the boys.

MURDERED BY REQUEST.

An Aged Frenchman, Tired of Life, Hires Boy to Stab Him to Death.

A strange boy murderer is Francois Berthelier, a lad of 16, who has been tried before the Aix assizes for killing an old man named Blanchard at the latter's request. In the dock he related his crime with grim composure. He said:

"On Friday, Oct. 13 (mark the uncanny day and date), the day before the arrival of the Russians, Blanchard and I went to Toulon. He then spoke to me for the first time of his intention of putting an end to his life. He dwelt on this topic for several hours, telling me about his lamentable physical condition and entreating me to deliver him from his suffering."

"Did you ask him why he hesitated to commit suicide?"

"He told me he could not bring himself to the point and that he had religious scruples. A couple of days later he came into my bedroom and woke me up. He said: 'Francois, I count on you for today. I wish it to be all over by this evening.' I was very astonished. He added: 'I am going to sign a bill for 1,800 francs for you. You may cash it at my notary's at Carpentras.'"

"This sum of 1,800 francs caused you to make up your mind?"

"It did. I bought a sheet of stamped paper and made out the bill, which Blanchard signed. Then we went to Joliette (to Marseilles) to take the steam tramway. Just before starting we went to a cafe, where my friend made me drink glasses of peppermint. He gave me sixpence to buy a knife at a store. In the tramway Blanchard told me to smoke a lot in order to deaden my feelings.

"At L'Estaque we entered another cafe, and I was made to drink four or five absinthes. We went along the highroad, when Blanchard, stopping, said: 'This seems to me the right spot. We shall be very comfortable here.'

"We went under the road bridge. My friend undressed and blindfolded his eyes and stretched himself on the flagstones."

"How many blows did you strike with your knife?"

"Four. On the way he had recommended me to strike several times—to strike at the temples and the jugular vein."

"Indeed you followed out his advice. You struck with a deftness which a professional murderer would envy. Did Blanchard die at once?"

"Yes. He leaned forward a little, heaved a sigh, and that's all."

"What did you do next?"

"I had a little blood on my fingers. I washed them in the sea."

"Did you feel no remorse, no terror?"

"A little, yes."

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty on the ground that Berthelier had acted without knowledge of crime, but the tribunal ordered that he should be sent to a house of correction until the age of 20.—Paris Journal.

A SAMPLE ARGUMENT.

They need a full set of Populist county officials over in Fresno. Many unemployed went there recently hoping to get employment in picking grapes, but they glutted the labor market and are now being arrested and sentenced to ninety days at breaking rock on the roads. One hundred and twenty were thus arrested at one time. The old parties make it a crime to be out of employment in a county in which under their unjust laws there is no work to do. —San Luis Obispo Reasoner.

The above is a very fair sample of the alleged arguments found in Populist newspapers. Criminals are defended and "the old parties" denounced for executing the laws and protecting the honest, law abiding masses from the depredations of the vagrant element.

There is now and has been for some time past plenty of work in Fresno county for every man who actually wanted it. Hundreds of honest men from outside communities have found employment here, and with this influx of laborers came the usual number of petty thieves and lazy, drunken loafers, who would just as soon stand up a poor grape picker and take his hard earnings as to rob the henroost of a banker.

Fresno has peace officers who perform their duty vigilantly and protect the community to the best of their ability from the depredations of criminals, and it may also be said that sympathy and assistance are given a good deal more liberally to the deserving unfortunate by them than it is given by many who are always bleating about the injustice done to the downtrodden and oppressed. Fresno officers have by diligent effort been successful in landing in jail or driving out of the community during the past few weeks a large number of vagabonds who would not take work when it was offered to them, and in so doing they have not only earned the thanks of all reasonable people who have property to protect, but of all intelligent and honest workingmen, though they have nothing more intrinsically valuable than their roll of blankets and a week's earnings in their pockets. Even those are not safe when the community is infested by a class of scoundrels over whom Populist editors find tears to shed.

If Populist administration means the condoning of crime and sympathy for vicious vagabondism, as the tone of many Populist papers so plainly indicates the inevitable conclusion is that it is a most excellent thing to avoid.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S administration was fully indorsed by the Democratic state covention, and the most striking features of that administration are the issuances without authority of congress of $50,000,000 of interest bearing bonds at a time when there was less necessity for it than there is at present, and the veto of a bill passed by congress to coin the seigniorage, because it would have been a slight recognition of silver and was disapproved by Wall Street. No man who is not himself a subservient slave to the gold bug, bond issuing cabal can afford to indorse such an administration with his vote.

IT is rather amusing to note the ardor with which the Republican press is denouncing the administration for the blunder of the state department in surrendering two Japanese students suspected of being spies. They appear to forget that the state department is run by a Republican, which is probably the cause of all the trouble.—Stockton Mail.

The eagerness displayed by the Democratic press in trying to make the Republicans responsible for the present administration, shows how utterly discreditable they believe it be. From reading the above paragraph one would think that the Republican party instead of Grover Cleveland had selected Gresham for secretary of state. According to that convenient method of evading responsibility, the stigma of the Cleveland scheme to destroy the provisional republic in Hawaii would attach to Republicans. It is not surprising, however, that our Democratic brethren insist upon having somebody share their burden of blunders. It is too much for one party to carry and survive.

AN exchange says: "Ten carloads of eastern chickens arrived in San Francisco last week and sold at $4.50 per dozen for grown hens and $2.50 a dozen for big broilers. Eastern poultry men make about as much shipping chickens this way as Californians do shipping fruit eastward." Eastern people have a valid excuse for importing their fruit from California; they cannot raise it there. But Californians have no excuse for not raising their own poultry, in a climate much better adapted for that purpose than can be found in the east. It is due to the disposition of the farmers here to despise small things. They don't like to fool with hens when they can gamble on wheat, and to that disposition is most of their misfortunes due.

THE evening journal appears to be somewhat alarmed at its own frankness in admitting that when Leland Stanford was "the anti-railroad candidate" for the United States senate Mr. Estee stumped the state for the Republican ticket. The time for the admission was rather inopportune, but it is none the less true that C. P. Huntington, the leading spirit and virtual manager of the Southern Pacific, had his knife whetted for Stanford at that time. The Expositor stumbles upon the truth unexpectedly once in a while.

CALIFORNIA workmen will not forget that the Democratic state convention indorsed Grover Cleveland's suspension of the Geary law at a time when its operation would have removed the curse of Mongolian labor from our shores.

THERE is one Populist official in Kansas who is not riding on a railroad pass. He assigned that useful piece of pasteboard to another Populist who is running for office, and the fraud being discovered the pass was confiscated.

PROCLAMATION!

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, August 4, 1894.

Whereas, The Legislature of the State of California, at its thirtieth session, beginning on the second day of January, A. D. 1893, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, proposed the following described amendments to the Constitution of the State of California, to-wit:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 8.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, amending section one of article two thereof, relative to the right of suffrage.

Section 1. Every native male citizen of the United States, every male person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the Treaty of Queretaro, and every male naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he claims his vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law; provided, no native of China, no idiot, no insane person, no person convicted of any infamous crime, no person hereafter convicted of the embezzlement or misappropriation of public money, and no person who shall not be able to read the Constitution in the English language and write his name, shall ever exercise the privileges of an elector in this State; provided, that the provisions of this amendment relative to an educational qualification shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions; nor to any person who now has the right to vote; nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age and upwards at the time this amendment shall take effect.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 14.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section three of article eleven of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to the formation of new counties.

Section 3. The Legislature, by general and uniform laws, may provide for the formation of new counties; provided, however, that no new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than eight thousand; nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than five thousand; nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties, shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 7.

A resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California, by adding a new section to article thirteen of the said Constitution, to be numbered section twelve and three-fourths (12¾), relating to revenue and taxation.

Section 12¾. Fruit and nut bearing trees under the age of four years from the time of planting in orchard form, and grape vines under the age of three years from the time of planting in vineyard form, shall be exempt from taxation, and nothing in this article shall be construed as subjecting such trees and grape vines to taxation.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 12.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seventeen, article one, of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 17. Foreigners of the white race, or of African descent, eligible to become citizens of the United States under the naturalization laws thereof, while bona fide residents of this State, shall have the same rights in respect to the acquisition, possession, enjoyment, transmission, and inheritance of all property, other than real estate, as native born citizens; provided, that such aliens owning real estate at the time of the adoption of this amendment may remain such owners; and provided further, that the Legislature may, by statute, provide for the disposition of real estate which shall hereafter be acquired by such aliens by descent or devise.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 17.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seven, article eleven, of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 7. City and County governments may be merged and consolidated into one municipal government, with one set of officers, and may be incorporated under general laws providing for the incorporation and organization of corporations for municipal purposes. The provisions of this Constitution applicable to cities, and also those applicable to counties, so far as not inconsistent or prohibited to cities, shall be applicable to such consolidated government.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 7.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, amending section nine of article thirteen thereof, relative to the election of a State Board of Equalization.

Section 9. A State Board of Equalization, consisting of one member from each congressional district in this State, shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, at the first general election to be held after the adoption of this amendment, and at each general election every four years, whose term of office shall be for four years, whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the several counties of the State for the purposes of taxation. The Controller of State shall be ex officio a member of the Board. The Boards of Supervisors of the several counties of the State shall constitute Boards of Equalization for their respective counties whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the county for the purpose of taxation; provided, such State and County Boards of Equalization are hereby authorized and empowered, under such rules of notice as the County Board may prescribe as to the county assessments, and under such rules of notice as the State Board may prescribe as to the action of the State Board, to increase or lower the entire assessment roll, or any assessment contained therein so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said assessment roll, and make the assessment conform to the true value in money of the property contained in said roll; provided, that no Board of Equalization shall raise any mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured, money, or solvent credits, above its face value. The State Board of Equalization elected in eighteen hundred and ninety four shall continue in office until their successors as herein provided for, shall be elected and shall qualify.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 16.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to article thirteen of the Constitution, section one, in relation to revenue and taxation.

Section 1. All property in the State, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership; provided, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county or municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation. The Legislature may provide, except in case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a reduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State.

AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 31.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seven (7) of article nine (IX) of the Constitution of the State of California, by increasing the number of members constituting the State Board of Education, by adding thereto the President and Professor of Pedagogics of the University of California.

Section 7. The Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the President of the University of California, and the Professor of Pedagogy therein, and the Principals of the State Normal Schools, shall constitute the State Board of Education, and shall compile, or cause to be compiled, and adopt a uniform series of textbooks for use in the common schools throughout the State. The State Board may cause such textbooks, when adopted, to be printed and published by the Superintendent of State Printing, at the State Printing Office, and when so printed and published, to be distributed and sold at the cost price of printing, publishing, and distributing the same. The text-books so adopted shall continue in use not less than four years; and said State Board shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide for a Board of Education in each county in the State. The County Superintendents and the County Boards of Educations shall have control of the examination of teachers and the granting of teachers' certificates within their respective jurisdictions.

AMENDMENT NUMBER NINE.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No.

An Act to submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to section twenty-three of article four of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 23. The members of the Legislature shall receive, in full payment for their services, the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars, and mileage not to exceed ten cents per mile, and for contingent expenses not to exceed twenty-five dollars, for each session, to be paid out of the public treasury. No increase in compensation or mileage shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected, and the pay of no attache shall be increased after he is elected or appointed.

NOW THEREFORE, Pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, and an Act of the Legislature entitled, "An Act to provide for the submission of proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of California to the qualified electors for their approval," approved March 7, A. D., 1883, viz:

DEMOCRATIC FACTIONS IN HARMONY FOR A TIME.

They Don't Want Jim Maguire to Witness Their Little Family Quarrels.

There was any amount of billing and cooing in the Democratic dove cote yesterday when the Central committee, the Jim Budd and the Campaign club met at headquarters to make arrangements for the coming of Congressman Maguire today and of Jim Budd on Saturday, October 6th.

The Jim Budd club was represented by H. H. Hotaling, W. D. Grady, B. T. K. Preston and J. McMullen; the Campaign club by George E. Church, E. D. Edwards, J. E. E. Edwards, James Gallagher and E. G. Ely. Dr. W. T. Maupin, president, and W. S. Badger, secretary of the county central committee, appeared on behalf of that organization.

The first business was to soothe the sensibilities of the proud and eager club representatives by establishing the proposition that all Democrats are created free and equal. It was accordingly agreed that the committee to receive Maguire should consist of the president of each club and three members to be appointed from each club. The chairman of the Democratic central committee is to be ex officio chairman of the whole.

In the matter of torches for the Jim Budd procession, it was agreed that candles would be cheaper and better and the torches were unavailable.

The next move showed exquisite taste and sympathy on the part of the "united" organizations. The Jim Budd club felt and the Campaign club felt and the central committee felt, that there are plenty of lost souls, Republicans and Populists, wandering around this part of an unregenerate world only lacking a little Democratic evangelism to bring them with a rush within the Democratic fold, over which white-winged peace hovers sempiternally. The clubs decided that Republicans and Populists should be encouraged to attend the Maguire and Budd meetings.

Having thus cared for the welfare of others, the Democratic leaders returned to the congenial task of caring for themselves. It was decided that at the coming of Jim Budd the first carriage shall be occupied by the redoubtable "J. B." himself, the chairman of the county central committee, the chairman of the Campaign club and the chairman of the Jim Budd club. In the second carriage W. W. Phillips, the candidate for railroad commissioner, would be accompanied by the reception committee.

The courtesies extended to the Democracy at the Estee reception were declined to call for reciprocal action, and it was arranged to extend the usual courtesies to Republican officials, campaign leaders, etc.

It was also declared that all the regalia necessary for any of the Democratic organizations is a ribbon badge with the name of the club printed thereon.

The full strength of the clubs was agreed to be called out in honor of Maguire.

The finance committee was instructed to make an immediate and urgent application to all good Democrats for contributions to the fund necessary for properly entertaining Maguire and Budd.

THE HIGH SCHOOL SENATE.

It Decides Against the Terry Block.

The Fresno high school senate met last night and organized for its work during the present term. There was a slight difficulty in setting the somewhat parliamentary machinery in motion, but the long vacation will not have any visible effect after a meeting or two.

The names of Lynn, Cody, William Lucas and John Jonsen were proposed for membership.

After other routine business had been transacted, the following resolution was introduced:

Resolved, That the new high school building should be located on the Terry block.

Senator Frank Craycroft expressed himself as bitterly opposed to the resolution. He spoke of the title muddle, of its unhealthfulness and of its position at the extreme limits of the city. Senator Harry Latimer contended that though it may cost more to beautify the central brock, it would be much more attractive with its sloping hillside of trees and grass. When the bonds were voted, it was the understanding that the building should be located on the central block. Senator D. K. Mott said that the opinion of the people of Fresno is practically unanimous for the central block.

F. M. Lane, a teacher in the city schools, was present and was called upon for his opinion. He expressed himself as undecided, since good arguments are advanced on both sides. But the general trend of his argument seemed to be in favor of the Terry block. He considered Fresno as in her infancy, and that in the near future the Terry block will be in about the center of the city. It must also be remembered that the Fresno school district extends beyond the city limits. Mr. Lane thought that the building should be in the center of the residence portion rather than near the business center. Among other senators who spoke were W. W. Mott, Harry Van Meter and M. F. McCormick. A vote of the assembly was taken and the resolution was lost.

BASEBALL SUNDAY.

A Picked Nine and the Fresno Team Will Cross Bats.

Baseball enthusiasm has been revived among the local sports of late, and as a practice game a match has been arranged between two nines, made up of local players. The game will take place at the Belmont grounds, which have been put into good condition.

The following is the make-up of the two teams:

Noonan	Catcher	Donahoo
Monroe	Pitcher	Wright
Chance	First base	Hayes
Cardwell	Second base	McDonough
Marlon	Third base	Wagner
Hibsel	Short stop	Porter
McVey	Right field	Rapelji
Reese	Center field	Knoblock

The Great Register.

The time for registering to vote at the coming election closes on October 23d. There is a great deal of activity now among voters to get registered. From thirty to fifty names are placed on the register daily. It is too early yet to speak with authority as to the total number that will be on the register this year, but the outlook now is that there will be about the same number as there were two years ago before Madera was cut off; that is, between 11,000 and 12,000.

Claim and Delivery.

William Degen has brought suit against Constable William Shaw to recover five wagons, twelve sets of double harness, and a cook house, which things the plaintiff claims were wrongfully and unjustly taken possession of by the constable on September 15th of this year, while they were at the Burrill ranch. He values them at $600, and asks in addition to this that he be awarded damages in the sum of $100. The plaintiff is represented by H. H. Welsh and W. D. Tupper.

ANOTHER FREE TRADER.

He Calls His Theories History and Then Banks on Them.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—In your issue of September 20, 1894, a wise and luminous critic appears and takes exceptions to two articles I wrote in the Expositor recently on the facts of imports of wool and value thereof under the highest protection this country has ever seen. He feels somewhat interested in myself for he speaks of my retirement as if I had been put to sleep. I thank God that I have always had the honesty, integrity and independence of American manhood in me to sign my name in full whenever I have appeared in print to advocate anything or to review any other man's article, and let me assure H. F. C. I am in the best of health and full of fight for the cause of honesty and freedom. I detect a sneak who attempts to be wise, and a leader, that does not dare to sign his name such as H. F. C. in the article referred to above. I want to be brief in this article, but fear the importance of answering this nonentity H. F. C. will prevent.

First, this man in the dark seems to be very wise for he knows exactly what Mr. Shoobert meant to convey in his article.

I had supposed Mr. Shoobert meant just what he said. H. F. C. with his platitudes, under proper conditions, he says we could produce all the wools we consume, trying to convey to the people of this country the reason we do not produce the wool here that we consume is because, as I take it, we don't have tariff enough, or have not had a sufficient tariff in 11 cents per pound for a number of years. Oh, wise friend of the sheepmen, state the condition we require, so we poor, deluded fellows may know. I do not want to deal in theories. The people want facts. I would like to quote his name but suspect he is ashamed to publish it. I am not ashamed to let the people know my name, nor my authority for my statements.

He says I mistake the facts as to prices going down under the McKinley bill, and he asserts they increased under it. I challenge him and dare him to produce any figures from reliable sources, such as Bradstreets, Dun & Co., the Cotton and Wool Reporter, or the government reports, that will show that the prices of wool increased under the McKinley tariff; for it is well known that our best Ohio and Michigan fine wools declined in price 3 cents per pound the first season, and have been going lower each year since. Produce your figures and authority or shut up.

He says I would have people believe that a high tariff reduces the price of wool. I am not going to theorize, but I have been hearing for so many years that, because we can buy things so much cheaper today than twenty-five or thirty years ago, it was the tariff that caused it. When the price of steel rails came down the cry, "See the tariff," was heard, but we want facts and history. I have before me some figures prepared by John L. Hayes, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association, in 1888, just before he died. When a man is near death he often speaks the truth. He gives prices for a long number of years, but I will quote only four years before the war. Under free trade times in 1857 the price of wool per pound was 58 cents, in 1858 54 cents, in 1859 60 cents, in 1860 60 cents. These four years were the nearest to free trade in wool of any years in the last fifty years. In 1872 it was 70 cents, 1873 70 cents. From that year it steadily declined to 33 cents in 1888. The tariff on wool was from 45 to 55 per cent all this time, as given by James Lynch and George W. Bond, the government experts. From that date the tariff on wool has never been less until the 28th day of last August, when the new bill took effect; but H. F. C. and all that class would have us believe that the high tariff will prevent imports and then the price of wool here will go up. Facts again are better than theory. I here quote from the tariff commission report of 1882. These figures must be true. Imports of wool:

Year.	Pounds.	Value.
1870	40,257,678	$ 7,887,715
1877	40,114,395	7,012,972
1878	39,801,161	6,995,306
1879	40,093,642	5,516,814
1880	99,372,441	17,913,666
1881	97,416,937	12,060,817

Now let us take the imports for seven years up to 1893, four years before the McKinley bill and three years after. We don't want theory.

Years.	Quantity in lbs.	Values.
1887	114,404,173	$16,424,479
1888	97,231,267	15,887,217
1889	126,181,272	17,974,515
1890	95,642,234	15,264,095
1891	110,390,280	18,280,382
1892	134,922,366	19,697,097
1893	175,636,041	21,004,180

Let the figures speak for the last three years under McKinleyism. With this increase of tariff compare these figures, woolmen, and remember McKinley was going to stop importations by increasing the tariff. I have no doubt when we get the figures for 1894 it will have stopped it considerable, for hard times always do; the figures I expect will show way down.

Now, I submit the foregoing facts to the consideration of all people, of all political shades, review them carefully, take the authority and judge for yourselves. I have no desire to try to delude any one. Your sheepmen and others have been deluded too long already. Because wool has not gone up at once under this bill, hold to your sheep. We are consumers of wool, and now our manufactures have a free field. The price must go up. It will never go to the prices of 1857 or 1870, but the foregoing facts prove that a high tariff don't do either of two things, keep up the price nor stop importations of raw wool. In spite of tariffs, in good years we import. In bad years we don't. When H. F. C. has digested these facts, come again, but my brother, give your name and authority for your statements; don't quote some wool merchant, relush a former article of some one else. And sheep man, study the facts of history, not theories. Several more things I would like to say, but space forbids this time. J. FAIRWEATHER.

J. F. DECKER FOUND.

He is Alive and Hearty at Sacramento.

J. F. Decker, who suddenly disappeared from Bartlett Springs and who was supposed to have been murdered, has turned up hale and hearty. T. J. Mitchell, Decker's partner, left last night for San Francisco, and a telegram was received from him yesterday stating that Decker was in Sacramento hale and hearty. A telegram has also been received from Decker himself from Sacramento stating that he was all right.

Barns Burned.

Thursday afternoon, at about 4.30 o'clock, two large barns on C. Erickson's place on Cherry avenue were destroyed by fire. The barns contained fifteen tons of hay, five sets of harness, a surry and a large number of farming implements.

Two valuable horses were also burned. One of them was a 2-year-old Junio colt. How the fire started is a mystery. The loss was about $1500; insurance, $450.

Officers Elected.

The Hermann Sons elected the following officers at their regular meeting last night to serve for the ensuing term: A. C. Ruschaupt, president; W. A. Wagner, vice president; William Brntsch, treasurer; Henry Johannsen, secretary; John Graupman, trustee.

The installation will take place next Friday evening at their hall in the Edgerly block.

HOW EDDINGER DIED.

The California Murderer Threw Up His Hands With a Pistol In One.

The particulars of the killing of F. S. Eddinger, the man who robbed Teamster Otto Hampton of Jose & Elley's freight money and the murderer of his employer, E. W. Jose, whom he had shot and fatally wounded on the night of June 10 at Lewiston, Trinity county, while the latter was trying to arrest him for the robbery, show that the fugitive was shot through the heart with a rifle ball fired by Deputy Sheriff Chase.

After Jose had been shot Sheriff Bowie of Weaverville, Trinity county, took up the trail of the murderer at Lewiston and tracked him to within five miles of Redding. He came into Redding and notified the officers here that he was certain that the robber was heading for the railroad, and that he was positive that he was on the right track.

Constable Pleisch and Deputy Sheriff Chase took the trail, proceeding to Cottonwood, Shasta county, until within a mile of that place, where the road crosses the railroad track, where they stopped, each taking one side of the road. Soon they saw Eddinger coming down the road and commanded him to halt. When the robber stopped, Chase said, "Throw up your hands."

The robber answered, "I have done nothing."

There came a shot from Pleisch's gun over the robber's head and again the injunction, "Throw up your hands."

The robber threw both hands up and at the same time his pistol. Chase could not see the pistol in his hand. The robber remarked: "There! My hands are up and nothing in them."

There was a fence between Chase and the robber, and Chase was obliged to climb over. When he had got over, he noticed the pistol in the robber's hand. Leveling his rifle, Chase said, "Drop that pistol," when the robber lowered his hand and at the same time commenced firing.

After two shots Chase fell on his knees, and the robber, thinking he had killed his pursuer, turned and commenced shooting at Pleisch. While in this condition Chase took deliberate aim with his rifle and sent a bullet through the robber's heart, killing him instantly.—Redding Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

Probably a Mistake.

The correctness of the report is not vouched for, but it is said that a faithful Democratic politician near the foothills is registering a band of Indians and will try to vote them this fall. If he succeeds in enfranchising these children of nature, they will naturally vote the Democratic ticket, for they believe in free trade—freedom to carry their acorns to Mono county and trade them for pine nuts.

Schools Will Close on Monday.

By a resolution of the board of education the city schools will be closed on Labor Day, which occurs on Monday next. The high school building will also be closed, so the pupils cannot spend their holiday at the school house.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A SUIT OVER SHEEP.

Frank Dusy Asks That Antone Piexoto's Band Be Sold.

Frank Dusy Jr. has commenced a suit in the superior court against Antone S. Piexoto to collect pay for pasturing and caring for a band of sheep belonging to Piexoto. Last spring the plaintiff and defendant entered into an agreement that Dusy should take a band of 3800 of Piexoto's sheep to the mountains and pasture and care for them during the summer, and bring them back to the plains in the fall and turn them over to Piexoto. For this Dusy was to receive 6 cents a head per month. He was to take reasonable care of the sheep, but if any died he was not to be held responsible for them, and to receive pay only for so many as he returned with in the fall.

There came on a snow storm in the mountains and 950 sheep died. In September the sheep were brought to the plains, but Piexoto refused to receive them, or to pay for their keeping. Mr. Dusy therefore asks the court to have the sheep sold, and with the proceeds pay off his claim of $870. The plaintiff is represented by Wiley J. Tinnin.

An Important Purchase.

W. Parker Lyon left for Stockton yesterday with a draft for $10,000 in his possession, wherewith to bind a bargain he made a few days ago. The trade referred to is nothing less than the purchase by Mr. Lyon of the largest stock of fine furniture in the slough city. He gets the stock at 30 cents on the dollar, and will give his Fresno patrons the benefit of the trade. This is the biggest purchase of furniture recorded for some time.

A WONDERFUL JOURNEY.

Two Russians Who Are Returning From a Visit to Lassa, the Sacred City.

One of the most remarkable journeys ever made overland across Asia has just been completed successfully by two Calmuck Tartars from the province of Astrakhan, Russia, on the Volga. They actually made their way across Siberia into Tibet and entered the sacred city of Lassa, which Rockwell and Miss Taylor saw from a distance. They also saw the Dalai Lama face to face. If these men had had any scientific training, the world would be far richer by their observations of a comparatively unknown territory, but they noticed very little on their journey and seemed to be mainly intent on securing a supply of religious books at Lassa and on reaching their homes again as speedily as possible.

The travelers are Budwa Menkudjinoff and Saranga Ulanoff. Both are Mongol Buddhists and speak the Mongol language fluently. In talking of their journey they said that Menkudjinoff, being a Lama, decided to go to Lassa to get a supply of books and prayers that could be vouched for as genuine, and Ulanoff, a neighbor, agreed to accompany him.

Three years ago they left home. They could give only scanty details of their trip, but the journey across the great mountains and elevated plateau was terrible, even to those hardy men, inured to extreme cold. It took 14 months of constant traveling to reach the sacred city. In crossing what has been aptly called "the roof of the world" they passed over mountains so high that the blood flowed from their ears and eyes. It was so cold, even in midsummer, on these great heights that they wore double coats of bearskins. In crossing the great desert they met no one except a band of robbers in four weeks.

Finally they reached the sacred city. They concealed the fact that they were Russians, as they knew that if any one suspected them of being foreigners they could never hope to gain admission to the city and its temples. They gave out they were Mongols, and as they both spoke the language they had no trouble in sustaining the disguise. They were received by the venerable Dalai Lama and worshiped before him. He seemed much gratified by their piety and their desire for literature. With his own hand he gave them a Buddhist Bible in 120 volumes, which was worth in Lassa 1,000 ounces of fine silver. They bought 26 large packages of prayers, images, charms and sacred books, which they safely transported on animals to Hankow. It is a curious fact that the prayers are printed on Chinese rice paper made in the province of Kiangsi.

From Lassa they made their way eastward through Koko-Nor and the northern provinces of China to Peking, a hard journey, which consumed 15 months. From that city they went to Hongkong in the hope of securing passage on a tea steamer to Odessa.

DREAM TRYST.

The breaths of kissing night and day
Were mingled in the eastern heaven.
Throbbing with unheard melody,
Shook Lyra all its star chord seven
When dusk shrank, cold and light trod shy,
And dawn's gray eyes were troubled gray
And souls went palely up the sky
And mine to Lucide.

There was no change in her sweet eyes
Since last I saw those sweet eyes shine;
There was no change in her deep heart
Since last that deep heart knocked at mine.
Her eyes were clear, her eyes were Hope's
Wherein did ever come and go
The sparkle of the fountain drops
From her sweet soul below.

The chambers in the house of dreams
Are fed with so divine an air
That Time's hoar wings grow young therein,
And they who walk there are most fair.
I joyed for one, I joyed for her,
Who with the past meet girt about,
Where our last kiss still warms the air,
Nor can her eyes go out.
